Troll Lord Games Disclosure Form

I wish to submit to Troll Lord Games (hereinafter TLG) for consideration of publication, the following materials, subject to the conditions below.

Working Title: _____

a. I submit my materials voluntarily for review by TLG on a nonconfidential basis. I understand that this submission by me and its review by TLG does not, in whole or in part, establish or create by implication or otherwise, any relationship between TLG and me that is not expressed herein.

b. I understand and agree that TLG, by its own judgment, may accept or reject my materials. I further understand that TLG is not obligated to me in any way with respect to my submission until such time as TLG, at its own election, enters into a properly executed written agreement with me, and only then according to the terms of such an agreement. Review of my submission by TLG does not imply or create any financial or other obligation, any confidential relationship or guarantee of secrecy, or any recognition or acknowledgment of either novelty or originality.

c. I understand that review of my materials by TLG in no way restricts TLG from publishing projects of its own on similar or the same topics in whole or in part. I further understand that if my submission utilizes or is based on characters, settings, or other materials that are owned by TLG, or if the submission contains trademarks and/or other proprietary materials that are owned by TLG, then I shall not be free to submit the submission for publication to any person or firm other than TLG.

d. I agree that TLG may have a reasonable amount of time in which to review my submission. TLG agrees to destroy the submission. I hereby agree to keep a copy of the submitted materials.

e. I understand that this agreement cannot be modified except by a duly authorized agent of TLG, and then only in writing. I warrant that the submission is original and will not violate the rights of any third party. I warrant that the submission has never been published, and that the person identified herein as the submitter is the sole owner of the submission. Furthermore, I am of legal age and am free to make agreements relative to this submission. (If author is under the age of 18, the author's Parent, Legal Guardian, Representative, or Agent must sign.)
